Takedown a taco! Bust on a burrito! Fly onto a fajita!

Lucha Libre, the first Mexican-wrestling themed restaurant, makes burritos that have been voted San Diego's best for the past two years. Besides traditional Mexican food, we offer unique dishes like TJ hot dogs, queso tacos, and our DDT baked potatoes.

All of this flavor comes to you in heavyweight portions at flyweight prices.

Lucha Libre uses the best-quality ingredient--from fresh vegetables to all-white meat chicken breast--to make our award-winning food. We cook with vegetable oil, never lard. Vegetarians can try our potato-rolled tacos or substitute fresh-cut fries for meat in any of our dishes. To wash it all down, try one of our Mexican beers.

Why a Wrestling Theme?

Lucha Libre is owned by three brothers—Jose Luis, Maurillo, and Diego—who love...you guessed it...Mexican wrestling! The Rojana-Garcia brothers grew up watching and loving Mexican wrestling with its aerial moves and colorful masks. Once we finished taking flying leaps onto each other, we decided to make our gourmet taco shop a tribute to the sport we love. You can become a Libradore yourself with our Lucha Libre merchandise available at our store or our web site.
